Joining Milano per la Scala means supporting a theater that pursues excellence, inspires and enriches the lives of those who attend it through the universal language of opera, ballet and symphonic music.

Milano per la Scala is also strongly committed to the promotion of a cultural education that sees young people at the centre of its action.

La Scala is considered among the most prestigious theaters in the world, hosting leading artists in the international field of opera, ballet and classical music.

It represents artistic and cultural excellence and pursues an ideal of perfection, high professionalism and quality.

After ten years, Teatro alla Scala presents a new production of Der Ring des Nibelungen with a Maestro of absolute eminence in this repertoire, Christian Thielemann, who thus adds his name to a list of giants featuring the likes of Toscanini, De Sabata, Krauss, Furtwängler, Cluytens, Muti, and Barenboim. The direction will be entrusted to David McVicar, an internationally renowned director who has already staged a broad repertoire of operas at La Scala, ranging from Cavalli to Berlioz, Cilea, and Verdi. The Tetralogy will be completed in upcoming seasons with Die Walküre and Siegfried in 2025, and Götterdämmerung and two complete cycles in 2026.
